Dear Jo:

To send you a thank you letter somehow seems insufficient but I guess there is no other way to tell you how much we appreciate you and the Hudson Valley Playback Theatre—your generosity in coming to perform at the Culture Project, and your very great sensitivity in dealing with us, the members of the audience, and the staff of the Culture Project.

The actors very movingly represented the feelings of the audience, and I know that the evening was memorable for very many people.

In a struggle like this, what we don't have in the way of power and wealth is more and more compensated by working with people like you.

Thank you, Jo, for everything.

Warm regards,

Constancia Dinky Romilly
